

- You see a second, partial image around or to the side of an object (called a ghost image).
- You are sensitive to light and glare, especially in bright sunlight or while driving at night.
- You are less accurate in judging how far or near something is from you.
- It is more difficult to see at night or in low light.
- Your eyeglass or contact lens prescription is changing more often.

Dulled or yellowed vision

Blurring or dimming

Distortion or ghost images